

HOME OFFICE,

S.W.,

13th July 1908.

Dear Sir,

I am directed to forward to you herewith a Card of admission to the Investiture which His Majesty will hold at Buckingham Palace on Saturday next, the 18th instant, and to request that you will bring it with you on that occasion; and I am to enclose a copy of the instructions to be observed by those who will present themselves to be invested by the King with the Insignia of the Imperial Service Order.

The cards bear designedly only one Christian name.

I am,

Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Chas. Deffell

Secretary & Registrar of the Order.
