LIEUTENANT MURRAY, R.G.A.

Official intimation has been received by Mrs Murray, 50 Fountainhall Road, Edinburgh, that the Commander-in-Chief, by permission of the King, had awarded her son, the late Lieutenant Robert M.D. Murray, R.G.A., the Military Cross for an act of gallantry in the field. Lieutenant Murray died on February 25 from injuries sustained when he was rendering first aid to some drivers who had been wounded. He and his battery were being shelled, and when he saw that the drivers were struck he and one of the gunners gallantly rushed to their assistance. Lieutenant Murray was 22 years of age, and was the younger son of the late Mr Abijah Murray, I.S.O., Secretary of the Local Government Board for Scotland.
